

PERMISSION RELEASE FOR SPEAKER MATERIALS

For Symposium Speaker

The Symposium Speaker identified below hereby grants to the Society of Toxicologic Pathology (STP) the nonexclusive worldwide right and license to reproduce, copy, and publish the materials assembled for the session identified below, in any and all media (including but not limited to electronic, print, and audio).

The Symposium Speaker hereby represents and warrants: (1) that he or she either owns and holds the copyright to the materials or would to the best of his or her knowledge and belief be entitled to copyright protection were an application to be submitted, or has obtained necessary release from the copyright holder; (2) that he or she has the authority to grant this nonexclusive license; and (3) that STP's exercise of its rights hereunder will not infringe upon any other person's or entity's copyrights or other proprietary rights.

For Symposium Speaker who are U.S. government employees, this agreement applies only to the extent to which the Speaker has rights to grant permission. If the work was produced by the Symposium Speaker under a U.S. Government contract pursuant to which the U.S. Government retains a nonexclusive, royalty-free license to publish or reproduce the published form of this work or to allow others to publish or reproduce it for U.S. Government purposes, then the Speaker transfers to STP permissions in accordance with this agreement subject to the contract rights of the U.S. Government. The foregoing shall apply to Symposium Speakers who are employed by corporations which have similar restrictions to those of the U.S. Government.

STP agrees to give the speaker appropriate credit in all reproductions, copies, and publications of these materials.

Symposium Session: _____

Speakers Name: _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____

Please return by January 15, 2010 via mail or email to:

STP Symposium
1821 Michael Faraday Drive, Suite 300
Reston, VA 20190
kgulley@toxpath.org
Fax: 703-438-3113